

Split Shipment Release Notes

When a shipment had trailing and leading status of ‘Loading Pending’, users will be able to access the split feature by using the split button found in shipping enquiry. This will open a new window that will allow user to take specific items within a shipment and split them out into a new shipment.

Users can also use the blue arrow buttons which will allow them to move the entirety of a shipment, container or item depending on the arrow that is used.

When performing a partial split, the user will be asked to enter a new container number which will be added into the new shipment.

When complete the new shipment will have the same information as the original shipment, and also have the trailing and leading status of ‘loading pending’.
